

Monday, Dec. 18, 1978

Made Eagle Scout

David G. Harris, 16, of 10 Nelson Park Drive was presented his Eagle Scout award Thursday night at the Unitarian-Universalist Church, 90 Holden St.

He is the son of son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Harris.

He is a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 54, and is the 12th member of the troop to earn the award since 1962.

Harris

He is a junior at Burncoat Senior High School. He began scouting in 1973 and is assistant patrol leader of the troop's wolf pack and is the the troop historian. He has been troop quartermaster, assistant troop librarian and assistant leader of the Apache Patrol.

Harris has completed service projects at the Salvation Army, the G.A.R. Hall, Mechanics Hall, the New England Repertory Theater and the Unitarian-Universalist Church.